

Cut and Run (2020)

Hind

You told a pack of lies, raised the battle cries.
To get your way, now we'll all pay.
The certainties crumble, our leaders tumble.
You say that you won, now your work is done,
Then you just cut and run.

*Fucked it up, then you just cut and run.
Here one moment, the next thing you were gone.
You just cut and run, yes you just cut and run.*

You love the money, the joke's not funny.
Played the system, the millions missing.
Still got your title, 'cause image is vital.
Sold out for one, now it's all gone,
When you just cut and run.

Fucked it up..

Feathered your nest, then fleeing the mess
Abused your status, act like you hate us.
Call yourself a leader, you're a useless bleeder.
You thought you'd won and your mate from Eton,
But you just cut and run.

Fucked it up..

So you got the top job, even though you're nob,
Blustered and lied, while thousands died.
Dad's grinning puppet, you're such a Muppet.
Fooled old London, but you're coming undone,
When will you cut and run?

Fucked it up...
